

Please do not delay the rule requiring portability for cellular telephone numbers. This rule is essential for consumers to be able to see real competition in a truly free market.